

FACTS

WHAT DOES 1st Enterprise Bank DO WITH YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION?

Why?

Financial companies choose how they share your personal information. Federal law gives consumers the right to limit some but not all sharing. Federal law also requires us to tell you how we collect, share, and protect your personal information. Please read this notice carefully to understand what we do.

What?

The types of personal information we collect and share depend on the product or service you have with us. This information can include:

- Social Security number and income
- account balances and payment history
- assets and employment information

When you are no longer our customer, we continue to share your information as described in this notice.

How?

All financial companies need to share customers' personal information to run their everyday business. In the section below, we list the reasons financial companies can share their customers' personal information; the reasons 1st Enterprise Bank chooses to share; and whether you can limit this sharing.

Reasons we can share your personal information	Does 1 st Enterprise Bank share?	Can you limit this sharing?
For our everyday business purposes— such as to process your transactions, maintain your account(s), respond to court orders and legal investigations, or report to credit bureaus	YES	NO
For our marketing purposes— to offer our products and services to you	NO	WE DON'T SHARE
For joint marketing with other financial companies	NO	WE DON'T SHARE
For our affiliates' everyday business purposes— information about your transactions and experiences	NO	WE DON'T SHARE
For our affiliates' everyday business purposes— information about your creditworthiness	NO	WE DON'T SHARE
For our affiliates to market to you	NO	WE DON'T SHARE
For non-affiliates to market to you	NO	WE DON'T SHARE

Questions?

Call 213-430-7000 or go to www.1stenterprisebank.com

Who we areWho is providing this notice?1st Enterprise BankWhat we do*How does 1st Enterprise Bank protect my personal information?

To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings.

How does 1st Enterprise Bank collect my personal information?

We collect your personal information, for example, when you

- open an account or deposit money
- apply for a loan or provide account information
- Pay us by check

We also collect your personal information from others, such as credit bureaus, affiliates, or other companies.

Why can't I limit all sharing?

Federal law gives you the right to limit only

- sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes—information about your creditworthiness
- affiliates from using your information to market to you
- sharing for non-affiliates to market to you

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing. See below for more on your rights under state law.

DefinitionsAffiliates

Companies related by common ownership or control. They can be financial and nonfinancial companies.

- 1st Enterprise Bank has no affiliates.

Non-affiliates

Companies not related by common ownership or control. They can be financial and nonfinancial companies.

- 1st Enterprise Bank does not share with non-affiliates so they can market to you, and only provides information if needed to complete a transaction you have requested, such as a wire transfer.

Joint marketing

A formal agreement between nonaffiliated financial companies that together market financial products or services to you.

- 1st Enterprise Bank does not participate in joint marketing.

Other important information

Under the California Financial Information Privacy Act (SB1), California residents have rights to control the sharing of some of their personal information. You have the right to opt out of any future decision made by the Bank to share your nonpublic personal information. Should the Bank desire to do so, you will be notified in advance and given the opportunity to opt out.