Who we are

Who is providing this notice?

1st Source Bank, 1st Source Insurance, 1st Source Corporation Investment Advisors, Inc.

What we do

How does 1st Source Bank protect my personal information?

To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards, secured files, secured buildings, limiting access of your personal financial information to those employees who need it to perform their jobs, and confidentiality agreements with service providers.

How does 1st Source Bank collect my personal information?

We collect information about you from a variety of sources, including credit reports, real estate records, your deposits with us, applications for new accounts, or payments to us.

Why can't I limit all sharing?

Federal law gives you the right to limit only

- sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes — information about your creditworthiness
- affiliates from using your information to market to you
- sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing.

What happens when I limit sharing for an account I hold jointly with someone else?

Your choices will apply to everyone on your account — unless you tell us otherwise.
