

Auburn Banking Company's Privacy Policy

Rev 12/2010

FACTS

WHAT DOES Auburn Banking Company DO WITH YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION?

Why?

Financial companies choose how they share your personal information. Federal law gives consumers the right to limit some but not all sharing. Federal law also requires us to tell you how we collect, share, and protect your personal information. Please read this notice carefully to understand what we do.

What?

The types of personal information we collect and share depend on the product or service you have with us. This information can include:

Social Security number and account balances

Assets and credit history

Credit scores and income

When you are no longer our customer, we continue to share your information as described in this notice.

How?

All financial companies need to share customers' personal information to run their everyday business. In the section below, we list the reasons financial companies can share their customers' personal information; the reasons Auburn Banking Company chooses to share; and whether you can limit this sharing.

Reasons we can share your personal information	Does Auburn Banking Company share?	Can you limit this sharing?
For our everyday business purposes— such as to process your transactions, maintain your account(s), respond to court orders and legal investigations, or report to credit bureaus	Yes	No
For our marketing purposes— to offer our products and services to you	No	We don't share
For joint marketing with other financial companies	No	We don't share
For our affiliates' everyday business purposes— information about your transactions and experiences	No	We don't share

For our affiliates' everyday business purposes—

information about your creditworthiness

No

We don't share

For nonaffiliates to market to you

No

We don't share

Questions? Call 270-542-4185 or go to auburnbankingcompany.com

Page 2

What we do

How does Auburn Banking Company protect my personal information?

To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings.

How does Auburn Banking Company collect my personal information?

We collect your personal information, for example, when you

- Open an account or apply for a loan.
- Deposit money or give us your income information.
- Use your credit or debit card.

Why can't I limit all sharing?

Federal law gives you the right to limit only

- Sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes—
- Information about your creditworthiness.
- Affiliates from using your information to market to you.
- Sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you.

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing.

Definitions

Affiliates

Companies related by common ownership or control. They can be financial and nonfinancial companies.

Auburn Banking Company has no affiliates.

Nonaffiliates

Companies not related by common ownership or control. They can be financial and nonfinancial companies.

Auburn Banking Company does not share with nonaffiliates so they can market to you.

Joint marketing

A formal agreement between nonaffiliated financial companies that together market financial products or services to you.

Auburn Banking Company doesn't jointly market.

To access this website your Internet Explorer needs to be updated.

To get the best possible experience and added internet security using our website, we require you to upgrade your current web browser or install another web browser. A list of the most popular web browsers can be found below.

Just click on the icons to get to the download page.

Please note: These links will navigate you away from our domain.

We are not responsible for and have no control over the content or subject matter of these external links.

