WHAT DOES CENTURY CREDIT UNION DO WITH YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION? Rev. 07/2012

Why?

Financial companies choose how they share your personal information. Federal law gives consumers the right to limit some but not all sharing. Federal law also requires us to tell you how we collect, share, and protect your personal information. Please read both sides of this notice carefully to understand what we do.

What?

The types of personal information we collect and share depend on the product or service you have with us. This information can include:

- Social Security number and transaction history.
- Payment history and credit card or other debt.
- Credit history and credit scores.

When you are no longer our member, we continue to share your information as described in this notice.

How?

All financial companies need to share customers' personal information to run their everyday business. In the section below, we list the reasons financial companies can share their customers' personal information; the reasons Century Credit Union chooses to share members' information; and whether you can limit this sharing.
