What We Do:

How does Commercial Bank protect my personal information?

To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings.

How does Commercial Bank collect my personal information?

We collect your personal information, for example, when you:

- Open an account
- Apply for a loan
- Use your credit or debit card
- Make deposits or withdrawals from your account
- Make a wire transfer

Why can't I limit all sharing?

Federal law gives you the right to limit only

- sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes - information about your creditworthiness
- affiliates from using your information to market to you
- sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing.
See below for more on your rights under state law.

Definitions

Affiliates - Companies related by common ownership or control. They can be financial and non-financial companies. Commercial Bank does not share with our affiliates.

Nonaffiliates - Companies not related by common ownership or control. They can be financial and non-financial companies. Commercial Bank does not share with nonaffiliates so they can market to you.

Joint Marketing - A formal agreement between nonaffiliated financial companies that together market financial products or services to you. Commercial Bank doesn't jointly market.
