What we do

How does Community Bank protect my personal information?

To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings.

Many of our security measures exceed government requirements.

How does Community Bank collect my personal information?

We collect your personal information, for example, when you

- open an account or apply for a loan
- deposit money or provide account information
- show your driver's license

We also collect your personal information from others such as a credit bureau, affiliates or other companies.

Why can't I limit all sharing?

Federal law gives you the right to limit only

- sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes—information about your creditworthiness
- affiliates from using your information to market to you
- sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing.
