What we do

How does Community National Bank in Monmouth protect my personal information? To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings.
We are committed to providing the highest level of security and privacy regarding the collection and use of our customers' personal information.

How does Community National Bank in Monmouth collect my personal information? We collect your personal information, for example, when you

- apply for a loan or open an account
- give us your contact information or give us your employment history
- provide account information

We also collect your personal information from others, such as credit bureaus, affiliates, or other companies.

Why can't I limit all sharing? Federal law gives you the right to limit only

- sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes - information about your creditworthiness
- affiliates from using your information to market to you
- sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing.
