What does Eagle Savings Bank do with your personal information?

Why?

Financial companies choose how they share your personal information. Federal law gives consumers the right to limit some but not all sharing. Federal law also requires us to tell you how we collect, share, and protect your personal information. Please read this notice carefully to understand what we do.

What?

The types of personal information we collect and share depend on the product or service you have with us. This information can include:

- social security number and income and account balances
- name and address and date of birth
- credit history and credit score and driver's license number

When you are no longer our customer, we continue to share your information as described in this notice.

How?

All financial companies need to share customers' personal information to run their everyday business. In the section below, we list the reasons financial companies can share their customers personal information; the reasons Eagle Savings Bank chooses to share; and whether you can limit this sharing.

| Reasons we can share your personal information | Does Eagle Savings share? | Can you limit this sharing? |
|---|---------------------------|-----------------------------|
| For our everyday business purposes — such as to process your transactions, maintain your account(s), respond to court orders and legal investigations, or report to credit bureaus | YES | NO |
| For our marketing purposes — to offer our products and services to you. For joint marketing with other financial companies | NO | NO |
| For our affiliates' everyday business purposes — information about your transactions and experiences | NO | NO |
| For our affiliates' everyday business purposes — information about your creditworthiness | NO | NO |
| For nonaffiliates to market to you | NO | NO |

Who we are

Who is providing this notice?

EAGLE SAVINGS BANK

What we do

How does Eagle Savings Bank protect my personal information?

To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings.

How does Eagle Savings Bank collect my personal information?

We collect your personal information, for example, when you

- open an account or deposit money
- bill payment or apply for a loan
- use your debit or credit card

(We also collect your personal information from others, such as credit bureaus, affiliates, or other companies.)

Why can't I limit all sharing?

Federal law gives you the right to limit only

- sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes—information about your creditworthiness
- affiliates from using your information to market to you
- sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing.

Definitions

Affiliates

Companies related by common ownership or control. They can be financial and nonfinancial companies.

Nonaffiliates

Companies not related by common ownership or control. They can be financial and nonfinancial companies.

Joint marketing

A formal agreement between nonaffiliated financial companies that together market financial products or services to you.

Other important information

INFORMATION WE DISCLOSE

We do not disclose any nonpublic personal information about our customers or our former customers to anyone, except as permitted by law. We carefully choose the companies that provide support services for us (such as on-line account processing or check imprinting). These companies are contractually required to adhere to our strict standards of information confidentiality and security. They are not permitted to use our customer information for any purpose other than the intended service.

WARNING

Eagle Savings Bank will never use e-mail to ask you for nonpublic information. Also, beware of (and report to us) any such request from others claiming to be auditors, FDIC, IRS, etc.
