Who is providing this notice?

Gold Coast Bank

What we do

How does Gold Coast Bank protect my personal information?

To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings.

To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we maintain physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards that comply with federal standards to guard your personal information.

How does Gold Coast Bank collect my personal information?

We collect your personal information, for example, when you

- open an account or provide account information
- apply for a loan or provide employment information
- make deposits or withdrawals from your account

We also collect your personal information from others, such as credit bureaus, affiliates, or other companies.

Why can't I limit all sharing?

Federal law gives you the right to limit only

- sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes—information about your creditworthiness
- affiliates from using your information to market to you
- sharing for non-affiliates to market to you

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing.
