FACTS Rev. January 2011 WHAT DOES IROQUOIS FEDERAL DO WITH YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION?

Why?	Financial companies choose how they share your personal information. Federal law gives consumers the right to limit some but not all sharing. Federal law also requires us to tell you how we collect, share, and protect your personal information. Please read this notice carefully to understand what we do.
What?	The types of personal information we collect and share depend on the properties information can include: Social Security Number Transaction or loss history Credit history When you are no longer our customer, we continue to share your information.	Credit ScoresOverdraft historyCredit card or other debt
How?	All financial companies need to share customers' personal information to run their everyday business. In the section below, we list the reasons financial companies can share customers' personal information; the reasons Iroquois Federal chooses to share; and whether you can limit this sharing.

Reasons we can share your personal information		Does Iroquois Federal share?	Can you limit this sharing?
For our everyday business purposes - such as to process your transactions, maintain your account(s), respond to court orders and legal investigations, or report to credit bureaus		Yes	No
For our marketing purposes- to offer our products and services to you		Yes	No
For joint marketing with other financial companies		Yes	No
For our affiliates' everyday business purposes - information about your transactions and experiences		Yes	No
For our affiliates' everyday business purposes - information about your creditworthiness		No	We don't share
For non affiliates to market to you		No	We don't share
QUESTIONS?	Call 815-432-2476 or go to www.iroquoisfed.com

Who We Are
Who is providing you this notice?	Iroquois Federal Savings & Loan Association.
What We Do
How does Iroquois Federal protect my personal information?	To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings. We also maintain other physical, electronic and procedural safeguards to protect this information and we limit access to information to those employees for whom access is appropriate.
How does Iroquois Federal collect my personal information?	We collect your personal information for example, when you Open an account Pay your bills Vise your credit or debit card We also collect your personal information from others, such as credit bureaus, affiliates, or other companies.
Federal law gives you the right to limit only • Sharing affiliates' everyday business purposes - information about creditworthiness • affiliates from using your information to market to you

Why can't I limit all sharing?

- sharing for non affiliates to market to you

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing. See below for more on your rights under state law.

Definitions
Affiliates	Companies related by common ownership or control. They can be financial and non-financial companies. • Our affiliates include • Financial companies such as: Iroquois Insurance Agency and Iroquois Financial Services.
Non affiliates	Companies not related by common ownership or control. They can be financial and non-financial companies. • Iroquois Federal does not share with non affiliates so they can market to you.
Joint Marketing	A formal agreement between nonaffiliated financial companies that together market financial products or services to you. • Our joint marketing partners include Credit Card Companies.

Other Important Information

For Illinois Customers. We will not share your information with non affiliates either for them to market to you or for joint marketing - without your authorization.