Who We Are

Who is providing this notice?

Kitsap Credit Union

What We Do

How does Kitsap Credit Union protect my personal information?

To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings.

How does Kitsap Credit Union collect my personal information?

We restrict access to nonpublic personal information about you to those who need to know the information to provide products or services to you.

We collect your personal information, for example, when you:

- open an account or deposit money
- pay your bills or apply for a loan
- use your credit or debit card

We also collect your personal information from others, such as credit bureaus, affiliates, or other companies.

Why can't I limit all sharing?

Federal law gives you the right to limit only:

- sharing for affiliates' everyday business purpose - information about your creditworthiness
- affiliates from using your information to market to you
- sharing for nonaffiliations to market to you

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing

What happens when I limit sharing for an account I hold jointly with someone else?

Your choices will apply to everyone on your account.
