

Why?	Financial companies choose how they share your personal information. Federal law gives consumers the right to limit some but not all sharing. Federal law also requires us to tell you how we collect, share, and protect your personal information. Please read this notice carefully to understand what we do.
What?	 The types of personal information we collect and share depend on the product or service you have with us. This information can include: Social Security number and Date of birth Address and Employment Income and Assets When you are no longer our customer, we continue to share your information as described in this notice.
How?	All financial companies need to share non-public personal information to run their everyday business. In the section below, we list the reasons financial companies can share their non-public personal information; the reasons Members First CU of FL chooses to share; and whether you can limit sharing.

Reasons we can share your personal information CU of FL share?	Does MFCU share?	Can you limit sharing?
For our everyday business purposes — such as to process your transactions, maintain your account(s), respond to court orders and legal investigations, or report to credit bureaus	Yes	No
For our marketing purposes — to offer our products and services to you	Yes	No
For joint marketing with other financial companies	Yes	No
For our affiliates' everyday business purposes — information about your transactions and experiences	No	Yes
For our affiliates' everyday business purposes — information about your creditworthiness	No	Yes
For nonaffiliates to market to you	No	Yes

Questions?

Call 850-434-2211 or go to www.membersfirstfl.org

Who we are
Who is providing this notice?	Members First Credit Union of FL
What we do
How does Members First CU of FL protect my personal information?	To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings.
How does Members First CU of FL collect my personal information?	We collect your personal information, for example, when you • open an account or • apply for a product/service or • make transactions using a debit or credit card
Why can't I limit all sharing?	 Federal law gives you the right to limit only sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes — information about your creditworthiness affiliates from using your information to market to you sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing.

Definitions
Amaus	Companies related by common ownership or control. They can be financial and non-financial companies. • Members First CU of FL has no affiliates.
Non-affiliates	Companies not related by common ownership or control. They can be financial or non-financial companies.

• Members First CU of FL does not share with non-affiliates so they can market to you.

Joint marketing	A formal agreement between non-affiliated financial companies that together market financial products or services to you.
	• Our joint marketing partners include companies that provide credit card, lending, ATM, mailing and insurance services.

Other Important Information

We restrict access to information about you to those employees who need to know that information to provide products or services to you. To protect our members' privacy, we only work with companies that agree to maintain strong confidentiality protections and limit the use of the information we provide. We do not permit these companies to sell to other third parties the information we provide to them.

Search Our	Site
Enter Key Words for Search	Search
outing # 263281624 ontact Us 850-434-2211 877-434-MFCU iderally Insured by NCUA Equal Housing Opportunity opyright 2010 by Members First Credit Union of FL	5-Star Financial institution BauerFinancial.com
MembersFirst Credit Union of Florida is not affiliated with Member	ers First Federal Credit Union (Kentucky).