Who we are

Who is providing this notice?

Mercantile Bank Corporation and its affiliates

What we do

How does Mercantile Bank protect my personal information?

To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings.

How does Mercantile Bank collect my personal information?

We collect your personal information, for example, when you

- open an account or deposit money
- apply for a loan or pay your bills
- use your debit or credit card

We also collect your personal information from others, such as credit bureaus, affiliates, and other companies.

Why can't I limit all sharing?

Federal law gives you the right to limit only

- sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes—information about your creditworthiness
- affiliates from using your information to market to you
- sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing.

What happens when I limit sharing for an account I hold jointly with someone else?

Your choices will apply to everyone on your account.
