Who we are

Who is providing this notice?

NEIGHBORHOOD NATIONAL BANK

What we do

How does Neighborhood National Bank protect my personal information?

To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings.
We limit the access to your personal information only to those employees with a need to know such information.

How does Neighborhood National Bank collect my personal information?

We collect your personal information, for example, when you

- Open an account or make deposits or withdraw funds from your account
- Pay your bills or apply for a loan
- Use your credit or debit card.

We also collect your personal information from others, such as credit bureaus, affiliates or other companies.

Why can't I limit all sharing?

Federal law gives you the right to limit only

- sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes-information about your creditworthiness
- affiliates from using your information to market to you
- sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you.

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing.
