FACTS WHAT DOES ROCKY MOUNTAIN CREDIT UNION DO WITH YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION?

Why?	Financial companies choose how they share your personal information. Federal law gives consumers the right to limit some but not all sharing. Federal law also requires us to tell you how we collect, share, and protect your personal information. Please read this notice carefully to understand what we do.
What?	The types of personal information we collect and share depend on the product or service you have with us. This information can include: - Social Security number and account balances - Checking account information and credit history - Payment history and transaction or loss history When you are no longer our member, we continue to share your information as described in this notice.
How?	All financial companies need to share members' personal information to run their everyday business. In the section below, we list the reasons financial companies can share their members' personal information; the reasons Rocky Mountain Credit Union chooses to share; and whether you can limit this sharing.
Reasons we can s	share your personal information	Does Rocky Mountain Credit Union share?	Can you limit this sharing?
For our everyday business purposes – such as to process your transactions, maintain your account(s), respond to court orders and legal investigations, or to report to credit bureaus		Yes	No
For our marketing purposes – to offer our products and services to you		Yes	No
For joint marketing with other financial companies		Yes	No
For our affiliates' everyday business purposes – information about your transactions and experiences		No	We don't share
For our affiliates' everyday business purposes – information about your creditworthiness		No	We don't share
For our affiliates to market to you		No	We don't share
For nonaffiliates to market to you		No	We don't share

Questions?

Call 406-449-2680 or go to www.rmcu.net

What we do
How does Rocky Mountain	To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use
Credit Union protect my	security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer personal information?	safeguards and secured files and buildings.
How does Rocky Mountain	We collect your personal information, for example, when you
Credit Union collect my personal	- open an account or apply for a loan information?	 show your government-issued ID or provide account information
	- give us your contact information
	We also collect your personal information from others, such as credit bureaus, affiliates, or other companies.
Why can't I limit all sharing?	Federal law gives you the right to limit only
	- sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes – information about your creditworthiness affiliates from using your information to market to you sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you State law and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing.

Definitions
Affiliates	Companies related by common ownership or control. They can be financial and nonfinancial companies. - Rocky Mountain Credit Union has no affiliates
Nonaffiliates	 Companies not related by common ownership or control. They can be financial and nonfinancial companies. Nonaffiliates we share with can include insurance companies, government agencies, plastic card processors (credit/debit/ATM), financial statement publishers or printers, mailhouse, mortgage service companies, consumer reporting agencies, data processors, check/share draft printers, financial advisors, and market research firms
Joint Marketing	 A formal agreement between nonaffiliated financial companies that together market financial products or services to you. Our joint marketing partners include CUNA Mutual Group's MEMBERCONNECT, loan recapture programs and financial advisors

Other important information