Who is providing this notice?

Signet Federal Credit Union

How does Signet Federal CU protect my personal information?

To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings.

How does Signet Federal CU collect my personal information?

We collect your personal information, for example, when you

- open an account or give us your contact information
- apply for a loan or show your driver's license
- give us your income information

We also collect your personal information from others such as credit bureaus, affiliates or other companies.

Why can't I limit all sharing?

Federal law gives you the right to limit only

- sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes - information about your creditworthiness
- affiliates from using your information to market to you
- sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing.

What happens when I limit sharing for an account I hold jointly with someone else?

Your choices will apply to everyone on your account.
