Who is providing this notice?

South Coast ILWU Federal Credit Union

What we do

How does South Coast ILWU FCU protect my personal information?

To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings.

How does South Coast ILWU FCU collect my personal information?

We collect your personal information, for example, when you

- open an account or apply for a loan
- use your credit or debit card or pay your bills
- make deposits or withdrawals from your accounts

We also collect personal information from others, including credit bureaus or other companies.

Why can't I limit all sharing?

Federal law gives you the right to limit only

- sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes—information about your creditworthiness
- affiliates from using your information to market to you
- sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing. We do not have any affiliates we share information with.
