WHAT DOES SUNMARK FEDERAL CREDIT UNION DO WITH YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION?

Why?

Financial companies choose how they share your personal information. Federal law gives consumers the right to limit some but not all sharing. Federal law also requires us to tell you how we collect, share and protect your personal information. Please read this notice carefully to understand what we do.

What?

The types of personal information we collect and share depend on the product(s) or service(s) you have with us. This information can include:

- Social Security number and income
- account balances and credit history
- account transactions and insurance claims history

When you are no longer our member, we continue to share your information as described in this notice.

How?

All financial companies need to share members' personal information to run their everyday business. In the section below, we list the reasons financial companies can share their members' personal information; the reasons Sunmark chooses to share; and whether you can limit this sharing.

Who we are

Who is providing this notice?

Sunmark Federal Credit Union

What we do

How does Sunmark protect my personal information?

To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards, secured files and buildings.

Sunmark regularly tests and assesses its information security measures, systematically trains employees, and adopts upgrades and enhancements as necessary to protect your information.

How does Sunmark collect my personal information?

We collect your personal information, for example, when you:

- open an account or apply for a loan
- apply for insurance or seek advice about your investments
- use your debit card

We also collect your personal information from others, such as credit bureaus or other companies.

Why can't I limit all sharing?

Federal law gives you the right to limit only:

- sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes—information about your creditworthiness
- affiliates from using your information to market to you
- sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing.

Definitions

Affiliates

Our affiliates include companies with a Sunmark name, financial companies such as S.I.S. Insurance & Financial Services LLC, and Prime Title Agency LLC; and non financial companies such as Horizon Service Organization LLC.

Nonaffiliates

Companies not related by common ownership or control. They can be financial and nonfinancial companies.

Sunmark does not share with nonaffiliates so they can market to you.

Joint marketing

A formal agreement between nonaffiliated financial companies that together market financial products or services to you.

Sunmark's joint marketing partners include insurance, investment, and other financial services companies.
