What we do

How does The Nehawka Bank protect my personal information?

To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings.

How does The Nehawka Bank collect my personal information?

We collect your personal information, for example, when you

- ▶ [open an account] or [deposit money]
- ▶ [pay your bills] or [apply for a loan]
- ▶ [use your debit card]

We also collect your personal information from others, such as credit bureaus.

Why can't I limit all sharing?

Federal law gives you the right to limit only

- ▶ sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes—information about your creditworthiness
- ▶ affiliates from using your information to market to you
- ▶ sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing.

NOTICE OF CHANGES IN TEMPORARY FDIC INSURANCE COVERAGE FOR TRANSACTION ACCOUNTS

By operation of federal law, beginning January 1, 2013, funds deposited in a noninterest-bearing transaction account (including an Interest on Lawyer Trust Account) no longer will receive unlimited deposit insurance coverage by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC). Beginning January 1, 2013, all of a depositor's accounts at an insured depository institution, including all noninterest-bearing transaction accounts, will be insured by the FDIC up to the standard maximum deposit insurance amount ($250,000), for each deposit insurance ownership category.
