

The Tri-County Bank Privacy Policy

FACTS	WHAT DOES TRI-COUNTY BANK DO WITH YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION? Rev. January 2011
Why?	Financial companies choose how they share your personal information. Federal law gives consumers the right to limit some but not all sharing. Federal law also requires us to tell you how we collect, share and protect your personal information. Please read this notice carefully to understand what we do.
What?	The types of personal information we collect and share depend on the product or service you have with us. This information can include: - Social Security number and Account balances - Payment history and Credit history - Mortgage rates and payments and Checking account information When you are no longer our customer, we continue to share your information as described in this notice.
How?	All financial companies need to share customers' personal information to run their everyday business. In the section below, we list the reasons financial companies can share their customers' personal information; the reasons Tri-County Bank chooses to share; and whether you can limit this sharing.

Reasons we can share your personal information	Does Tri-County Bank share?	Can you limit this sharing?
For our everyday business purposes	Yes	No such as to process your transactions, maintain your account(s), respond to court orders and legal investigations, or report to credit bureaus
For our marketing purposes—	No	We don't share
To offer our products and services to you
For joint marketing with other financial companies	No	We don't share
For our affiliates' everyday business purposes—	No	We don't share information about your transactions and experiences
For our affiliates' everyday business purposes—	No	We don't share
Information about your creditworthiness
For non-affiliates to market to you	No	We don't share

Questions?

Call toll-free 888-346-0800 or go to www.tri-countybank.com

What we do

How does Tri-County Bank protect my personal information?	To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings.
How does Tri-County Bank collect my personal information?	We collect your personal information, for example, when you -Open an account or apply for a loan -Show your driver's license or give us your contact information -Provide account information

	We also collect your personal information from others, such as credit bureaus, affiliates, or other companies.
Why can't I limit all sharing?	Federal law gives you the right to limit only -sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes—information about your creditworthiness -affiliates from using your information to market to you -sharing for non-affiliates to market to you
	State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing.

Definitions

Affiliates	Companies related by common ownership or control. They can be financial and non-financial companies. -Tri-County Bank has no affiliates.
Non-affiliates	Companies not related by common ownership or control. They can be financial and non-financial companies.
	-Tri-County Bank does not share with non-affiliates so they can market to you.
Joint marketing	A formal agreement between non-affiliated financial companies that together market financial products or services to you.
	-tri-County Bank does not jointly market.

Privacy Policy :: Site Map :: Search

netone.site cms by Netsource One, Inc.