FACTS	WHAT DOES UKRAINIAN SELFRELIANCE FEDERAL CREDIT UNION DO WITH YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION?
Why?	Financial companies choose how they share your personal information. Federal law gives consumers the right to limit some but not all sharing. Federal law also requires us to tell you how we collect, share, and protect your personal information. Please read this notice carefully to understand what we do.
What?	The types of personal information we collect and share depend on the product or service you have with us. This information can include: -Social Security number and account balances -Checking account information and credit card or other debt -Credit history and mortgage rates and payments When you are no longer our member, we continue to share your information as described in this notice.
How?	All financial companies need to share members' personal information to run their everyday business. In the section below, we list the reasons financial companies can share their members' personal information; the reasons UKRAINIAN SELFRELIANCE FEDERAL CREDIT UNION CHOOSES TO SHARE; and whether you can limit this sharing.

Reasons we can share your personal information	Does USFCU share?	Can you limit this sharing?
For our everyday business purposes – Such as to process your transactions, maintain your account(s), respond to court orders and legal investigations, or to report to credit bureaus.	Yes	No
For our marketing purposes – To offer our products and services to you	Yes	No
For joint marketing with other financial companies	Yes	No
For our affiliates everyday business purposes – Information about your transactions and experiences	No	We don't share
For our affiliates' everyday business purposes – Information about your creditworthiness	No	We don't share
For nonaffiliates to market to you	No	We don't share

What we do
How does USFCU protect my personal information?	To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings.
How does USFCU collect my personal information?	We collect your personal information, for example, when you -open an account or show your government-issued ID - provide your mortgage information or show us your driver's license - make deposits or withdrawals from your account We also collect your personal information from others, such as credit bureaus, affiliates, or other companies.
Why can't I limit all sharing?	Federal law gives you the right to limit only -sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes – information about your creditworthiness -affiliates from using your information to market to you

	-sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you State law and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing.
