

PRIVACY NOTICE

Rev. 4/01/2014

FACTS	WHAT DOES UNIVERSITY C DO WITH YOUR PERSONAL
Why?	Financial companies choose how they share your personal information. Federal law gives consumers the right to limit some but not all sharing. Federal law also requires us to tell you how we collect, share, and protect your personal information. Please read this notice carefully to understand what we do.
What?	 The types of personal information we collect and share depend on the product or service you have with us. This information can include: Social Security number and payment history Income and transaction history Account balances and checking account information When you are no longer our member, we continue to share your information as described in this notice.
How?	All financial companies need to share members' personal information to run their everyday business. In the section below, we list the reasons financial companies can share their members' personal information; the reasons University Credit Union chooses to share; and whether you can limit this sharing.
Reasons we can s	share your personal information	Does University Credit Union share?	Can you limit this sharing?
For our everyday business purposes— such as to process your transactions, maintain your account(s), respond to court orders and legal investigations, or report to credit bureaus		Yes	No
For our marketing purposes—to offer our products and services to you		Yes	No
For joint marketing with other financial companies		Yes	No
For our affiliates' everyday business purposes— information about your transactions and experiences		No	We do not share
For our affiliates' everyday business purposes— information about your creditworthiness		No	We do not share
For nonaffiliates to market to you		No	We do not share

Questions? Call 310-477-6628, Extension 1 or send an email to ucumail@ucu.org

Page 2

Who we are
Who is providing this notice?	University Credit Union
What we do
How does University Credit Union protect my personal information?	To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings.
How does University Credit Union collect my personal information?	 We collect your personal information, for example, when you open an account or deposit money pay your bills or apply for a loan use your credit or ATM/debit card We also collect your personal information from others, such as credit
Why can't I limit all sharing?	 bureaus or other companies. Federal law gives you the right to limit only sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes—information about your creditworthiness affiliates from using your information to market to you sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to

Definitions
Affiliates	 Companies related by common ownership or control. They can be financial and nonfinancial companies. University Credit Union has no affiliates.
Nonaffiliates	 Companies not related by common ownership or control. They can be financial and nonfinancial companies. University Credit Union does not share with nonaffiliates so they can market to you.
Joint marketing	 A formal agreement between nonaffiliated financial companies that together market financial products or services to you. Our joint marketing partners include insurance companies.

Other important information

The State of California requires University Credit Union to provide an opt-out notice in addition to this federal privacy notice. To exercise your right, refer to the separate notice titled, "Important Privacy Choices for Consumers" for details on how you can limit our information sharing under California law.