WHAT THIS PRIVACY POLICY COVERS

Yahoo! takes your privacy seriously. Please read the following to learn more about our privacy policy.

The federal government and technology industry have developed practical steps to help you protect your personal information.

How Yahoo! Uses Your Personal Information

This policy covers how Yahoo! treats personal information that Yahoo! collects and receives, including information related to your past use of Yahoo! products and services. Personal information is information about you that is personally identifiable like your name, address, email address, or phone number, and that is not otherwise publicly available.

This privacy policy only applies to Yahoo!

This policy does not apply to the practices of companies that Yahoo! does not own or control, or to people that Yahoo! does not employ or manage. In addition, some companies that Yahoo! has acquired have their own privacy policies.

Ad-Supported Websites

Yahoo! is an advertising supported website. Most of the products and services we offer are largely free of charge to you because we display advertising. Other websites also partner with Yahoo! to show ads on their sites to support their offerings.

Additional Choices

Yahoo! will apply your ad interest opt-out to certain other products we offer. By opting out of receiving interest-based ads, you will also be opting out of both receiving interest-based content and data collection through partner sites for our analytics products.

Other Inputs

Ad Interest Manager BETA

To make our ads more relevant and useful for you, we make educated guesses about your interests based on your activity on Yahoo!'s sites and services. Some of the ads we show you reflect these interests. You can opt out of interest-based advertising altogether using the tools on this page. Learn more.

Your Interest Categories ?

We use information about many of the pages you have visited, ads you have seen and clicked, and some of your searches on Yahoo! to create interest categories that help us choose the kinds of ads you'll see. You can edit or de-select categories here or opt out of interest-based ads altogether. See All Standard Categories

Global Privacy Enforcement Network Internet Privacy Sweep Questions and Answers

May 6, 2013

What will happen during the Internet Privacy Sweep? What is the goal?

Privacy enforcement authorities participating in the Sweep will designate individuals within their organizations to search the Internet in a coordinated effort to assess privacy practices related to a predetermined theme – this year the theme is Privacy Practice Transparency.

The Sweep will provide flexibility for privacy enforcement authorities to tailor their search within this common theme to focus on issues that are relevant in the context of domestic legislation, market factors and strategic priorities.

The purpose of the Sweep is not to conduct an in-depth analysis of the privacy practice transparency of each website, but to replicate the consumer experience by spending a few minutes per site checking for performance against set common indicators.

The Sweep is not an investigation, nor is it intended to conclusively identify

Nobody wants to read privacy policies

“the notice-and-choice model, as implemented, has led to long, incomprehensible privacy policies that consumers typically do not read, let alone understand”

- Protecting Consumer Privacy in an Era of Rapid Change. Preliminary FTC Staff Report. December 2010.

Cost of reading privacy policies

- What would happen if everyone read the privacy policy for each site they visited once each month?
- Time = 244/hours year
- Cost = $3,534/year
- National opportunity cost for time to read policies: $781 billion

Google Bypassing User Privacy Settings

Published Monday, February 20, 2012 1:31 PM

When the IE team heard that Google had bypassed user privacy settings on Safari, we asked ourselves a simple question: is Google circumventing the privacy preferences of Internet Explorer users too? We've discovered the answer is yes: Google is employing similar methods to get around the default privacy

Microsoft uses a “self-declaration” protocol (known as “P3P”) dating from 2002 It is well known – including by Microsoft – that it is impractical to comply with Microsoft’s request while providing modern web functionality.

Do not track

- Proposed W3C standard
- User checks a box
- Browser sends “do not track” header to website
- Website stops “tracking”
- W3C working group trying to define what that means

Lots of tools to stop tracking

- Browser privacy settings
 - Cookie blocking
 - P3P
 - Tracking Protection Lists
 - Do Not Track
- Browser add-ons
- Opt-out cookies
- Digital Advertising Alliance (DAA) AdChoices icon and associated opt-out pages

DoNotTrackMe

Are any of these tools effective?

- Do the tools work?
 - Does technology do what it is supposed to do?
 - Do companies respect user choices?
- Can consumers use them?
 - Do users understand tracking?
 - Do users understand what tools do?
 - Can users make tools do what they want?

Why Johnny Can't Opt Out: A Usability Evaluation of Tools to Limit Online Behavioral Advertising

Three types of tools tested

Blocking Tools

Opt-out Tools

Privacy built in browser

Methodology

- Part of previous interview study
- 45 participants evaluated 9 tools
 - Between subjects study
 - Random assignment, controlled for preferred web browser and operating system

Testing protocol

- Semi-structured interview
- Usability testing
 - Task 1: Learn about and install the tool
 - Task 2: Change tool settings
 - Task 3: Browsing scenarios
- Exit questionnaire

DAA website

The screenshot shows a Firefox browser window displaying the website <http://www.aboutads.info/>. The page title is "THE SELF-REGULATORY PROGRAM FOR ONLINE BEHAVIORAL ADVERTISING". The navigation menu includes: Home, The Principles, For Consumers, For Companies, List of Participants, Resources, News, Enforcement, and Contact.

The main content area features a large blue play button icon with a white 'i' inside, labeled "Advertising Option Icon". To its right, the text reads: "Welcome to the online home of the Self-Regulatory Program for Online Behavioral Advertising." Below this, a paragraph explains the program's purpose: "Building on the Self-Regulatory Principles for Online Behavioral Advertising (Principles) released in July 2009, the nation's largest media and marketing associations have come together to launch this Program, which gives consumers a better understanding of and greater control over ads that are customized based on their online behavior (also called "interest-based" advertising)."

Under the heading "For Consumers", there is a section titled "Learn about Online Behavioral Advertising:" which states: "If you're an online user, you can find out more about online behavioral advertising and how it helps provide you with more relevant advertising on the websites you visit. You'll learn how online advertising supports the free content, products and services you use online; what choices you have; and how to use browser controls to enhance your privacy."

At the bottom of the main content area, there is a link: "Exercise Your Choice: You can now visit the beta version of the Program's Consumer Opt Out Page, which allows users to". The word "visit" is highlighted with a red box.

On the right side of the page, under the heading "Participating Associations", there is a list of logos: A's LEADERSHIP COMMUNITY ADVOCACY GUIDANCE, AAF, ANA Leading the Marketing Community, BBB Start With Trust, DMA Direct Marketing Association, iab., and NAI.

The browser's address bar shows <http://www.aboutads.info/home>. The taskbar at the bottom shows the Windows Start button, several application icons, and the system tray with the date and time: 5:03 PM 9/29/2011.

AdChoices

The industry claims total success

“The DAA has revolutionized consumer education and choice by delivering a real-time, in-ad notice more than 10 billion times every day through the increasingly ubiquitous DAA Advertising Option Icon (also known as the ‘Ad Choices’ Icon)”

Peter Kosmala, Former Managing Director of The Digital Advertising Alliance. Yes, Johnny Can Benefit From Transparency and Control. November 3, 2011.

Objectives

- Evaluate the effectiveness of different OBA disclosures at communicating notice and choice about OBA
- Find ways to improve effectiveness of OBA disclosures

Methodology

- Large scale between-subjects online study
 - 1,505 participants
 - Over 100 participants per treatment
- Participants recruited through Amazon Mechanical Turk
- Guided browsing scenario
- Online survey

First exposure to OBA disclosures

The screenshot shows the homepage of The New York Times. At the top, there are navigation links for HOME PAGE, TODAY'S PAPER, VIDEO, MOST POPULAR, and TIMES TOPICS. On the right, there are links for Subscribe: Home Delivery / Digital, Log In, and Register Now. The main header features the newspaper's name, the date (Tuesday, October 25, 2011), and the last update time (11:21 PM ET). Below the header is a search bar and social media links for Facebook, Twitter, and RSS. The main content area is divided into several sections:

- Left Sidebar: A vertical menu with categories like JOBS, REAL ESTATE, AUTOS, ALL CLASSIFIEDS, WORLD, U.S., POLITICS, NEW YORK, BUSINESS, DEALBOOK, TECHNOLOGY, SPORTS, SCIENCE, HEALTH, OPINION, ARTS, Books, Movies, Music, Television, Theater, STYLE, Dining & Wine, Fashion & Style, Home & Garden, and Weddings/.
- Top Left Ad: An Air France advertisement with a "Why did I get this ad?" link.
- Main Article 1: "Europe Faces New Hurdles in Crisis Over Debt" by Steven Erlanger and Rachel Donadio, published 20 minutes ago. The article discusses financial measures at a European Union summit.
- Main Article 2: "I.B.M. Names Virginia Rometty as New Chief Executive" by Steve Lohr, published 22 minutes ago. It features a photo of Virginia Rometty and discusses her appointment as CEO.
- Main Article 3: "Baseball's Game of Telephone" by Pat Borzi, published 3 minutes ago. It discusses the Cardinals' bullpen debacle and their reliance on landlines.
- Main Article 4: "New Poll Finds a Deep Distrust of Government" by Jeff Zeleny and Megan Three-Brenan, published 3 minutes ago. It discusses government distrust ahead of the election.
- Right Sidebar: An "OPINION" section with a link to "Are Law Schools and Bar Exams Necessary?" and a list of other opinion pieces.
- Bottom Right Ad: An advertisement for Plaza Athénée, a luxury hotel in Paris, featuring a view of the Eiffel Tower and a dining table.

Second exposure to OBA disclosures

- Why did I get this ad?
- Interest based ads
- AdChoices
- Sponsor ads
- Learn about your ad choices
- Configure ad preferences
- 'No tagline'

Exposure to landing pages

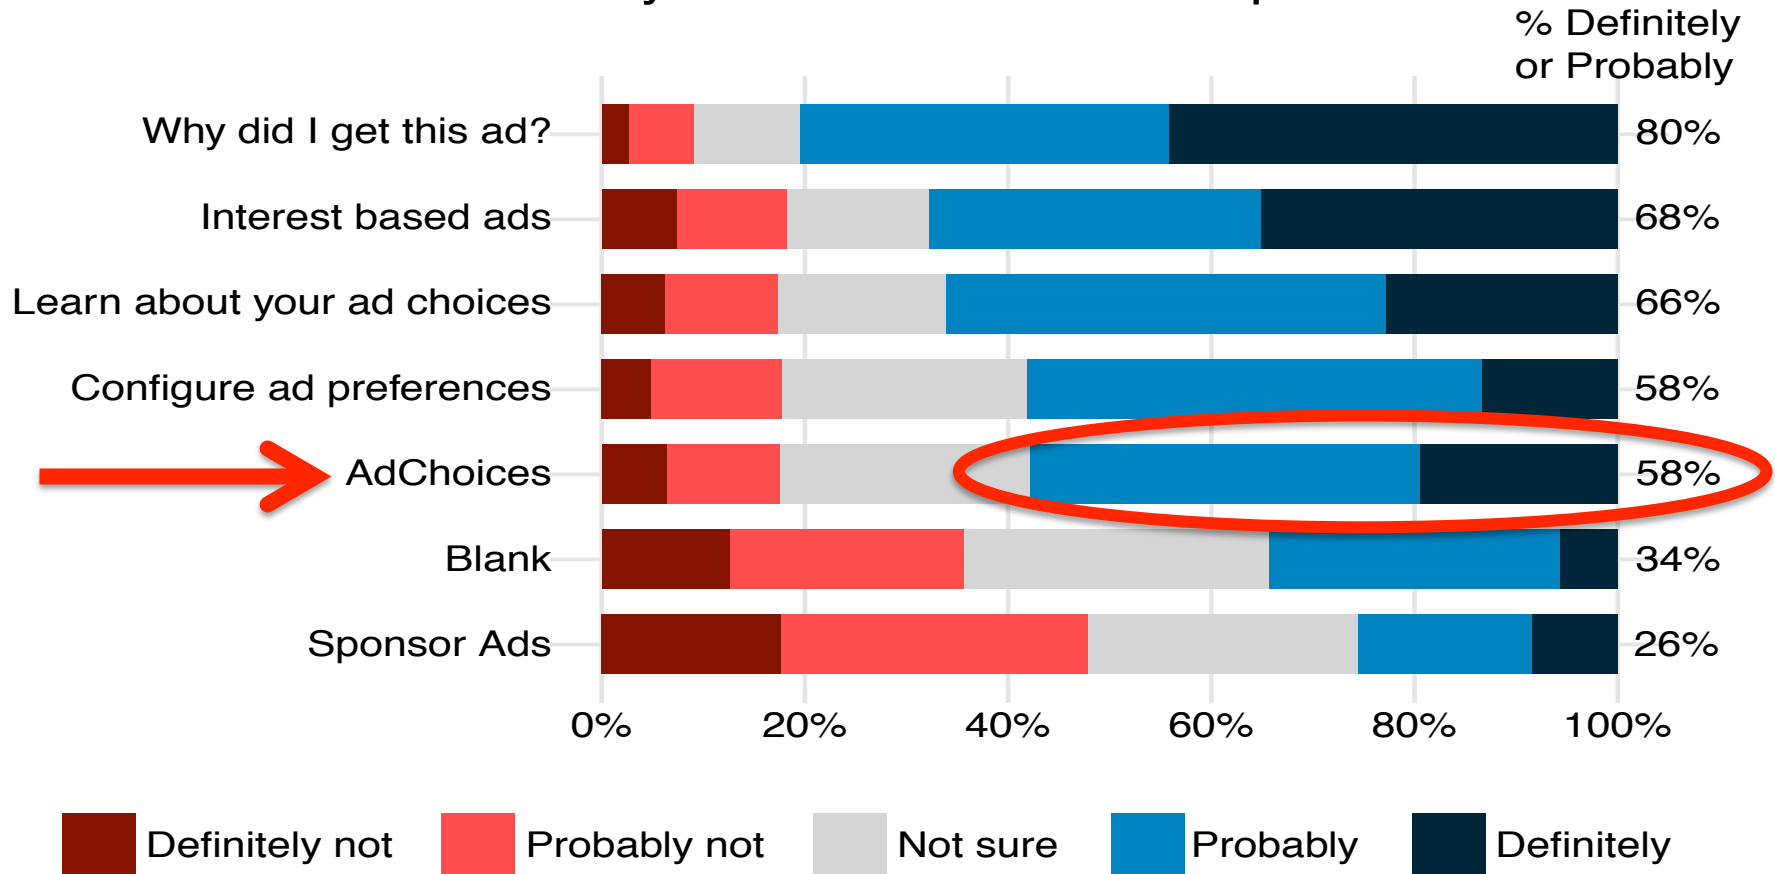

- AOL
- Yahoo!
- Microsoft
- Google
- Monster

Do icons and taglines suggest tailored ads?

- To what extent, if any, does this combination of the symbol and phrase, placed on the top right corner of the above ad suggest the following?
 - This ad has been tailored based on websites you have visited in the past. [true]

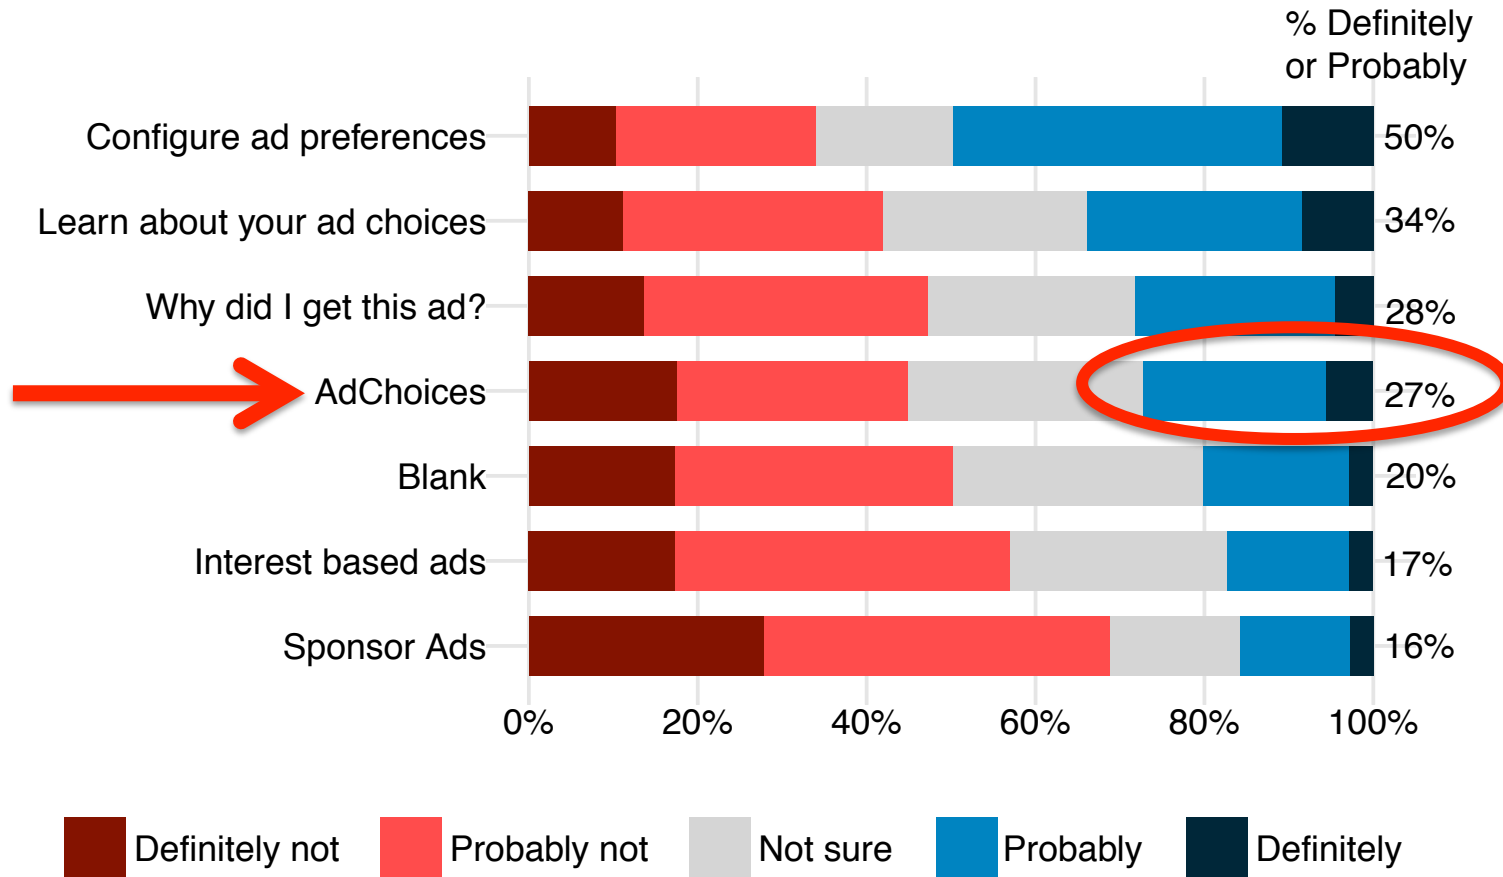

This ad has been tailored based on websites you have visited in the past

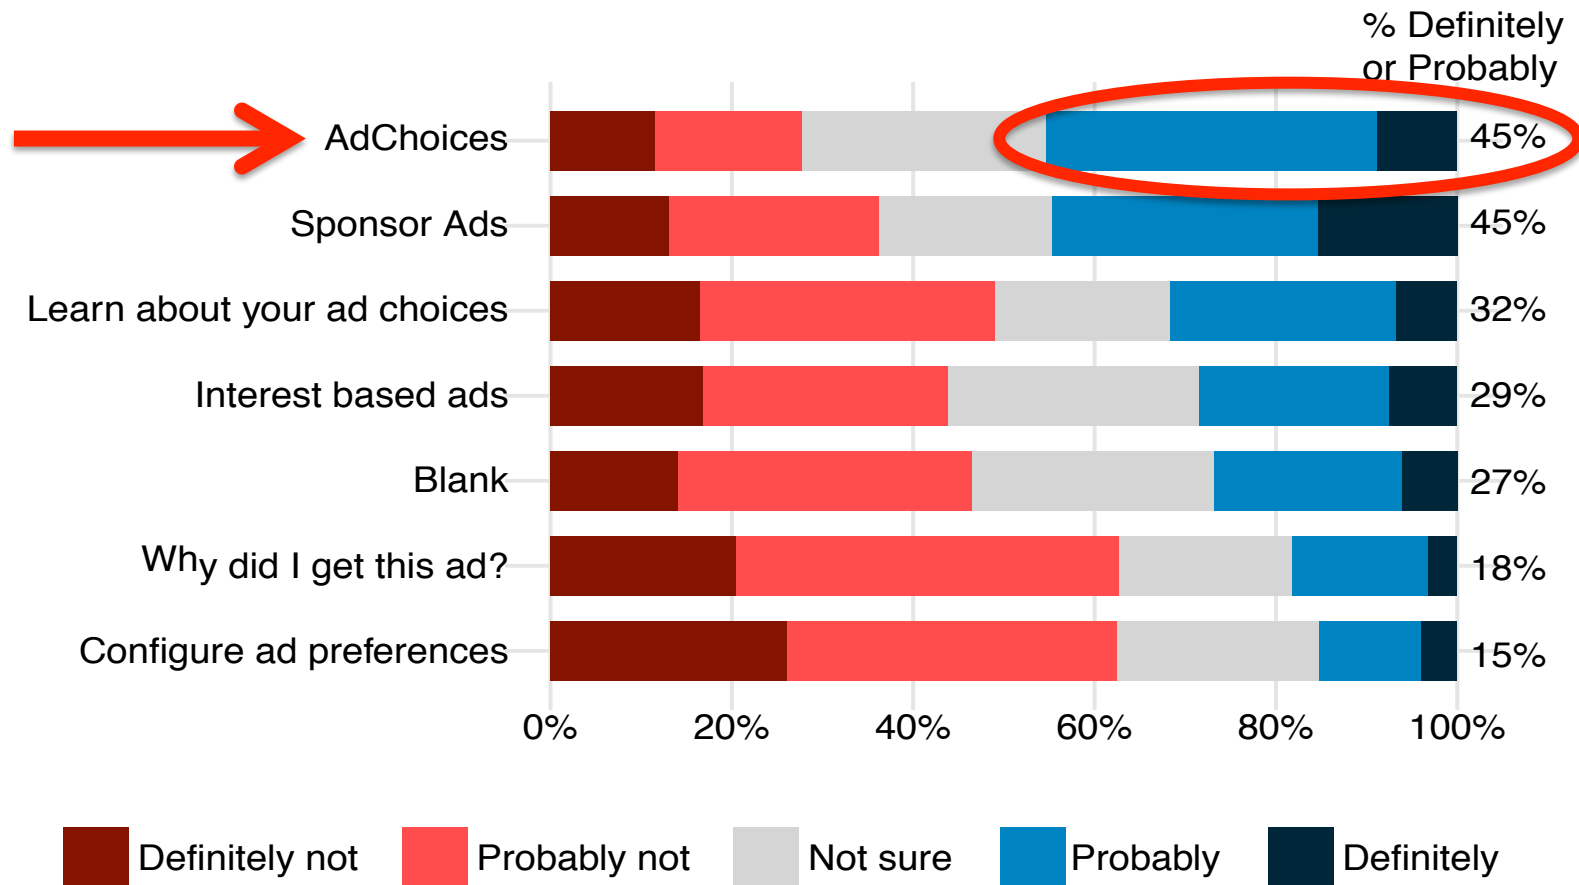

Willingness to click

- What do you think would happen if you click on that symbol or that phrase?
 - It will take you to a page where you can tell the advertising company that you do not want to receive tailored ads. [true]
 - More ads will pop up. [false]
 - It will take you to a page where you can buy advertisements on this website. [false]

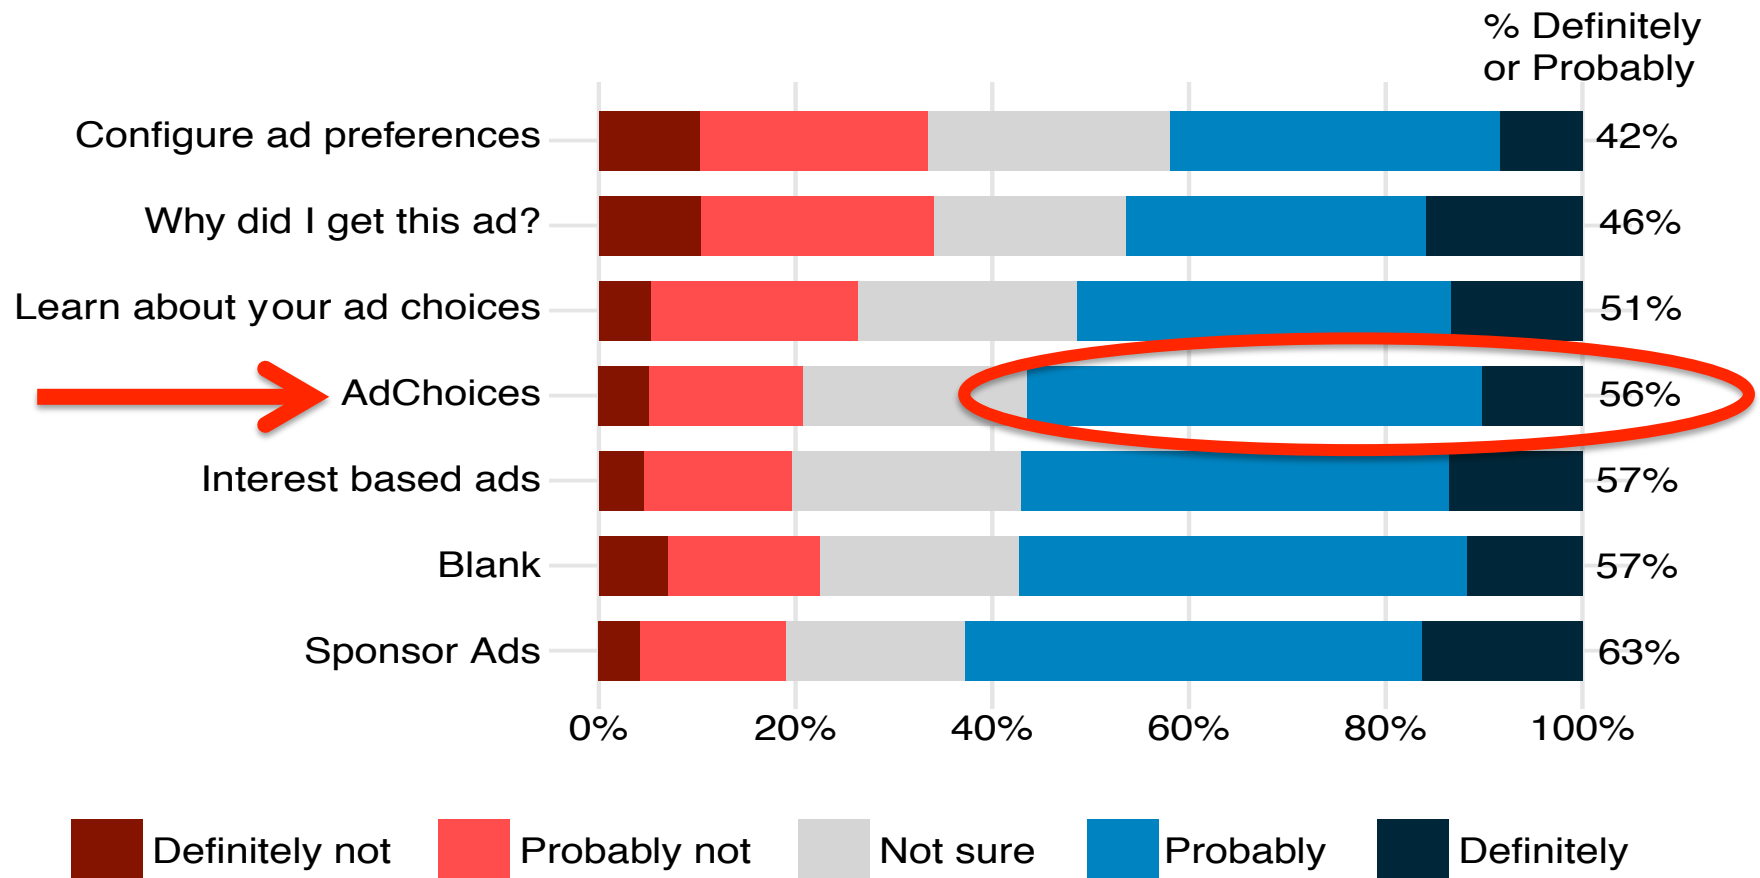

Will take you to a page where you can tell the advertising company that you do not want to receive tailored ads

Will take you to a page where you can buy advertisements on this website

More ads will pop up

Takeaways

- OBA icons and taglines are not noticed
- “AdChoices” was outperformed by other tagline treatments at communicating notice and choice about OBA
- Users are afraid to click on icon

How effective is privacy
notice and choice in practice?

Notice and Choice Mechanism	Effectiveness in Practice
Privacy policies
Privacy nutrition labels
Privacy Facts for Android
P3P
Do Not Track
Tools to opt-out of tracking
AdChoices icon
Model financial privacy notice

Notice and Choice Mechanism	Effectiveness in Practice
Privacy policies	Nobody reads
Privacy nutrition labels	Promising research, not used
Privacy Facts for Android	Promising research, not used
P3P	Used to circumvent browser privacy settings
Do Not Track	No agreement on what it means
Tools to opt-out of tracking	Difficult to use
AdChoices icon	Nobody knows what it means and people are afraid to click on it
Model financial privacy notice	Adopted by thousands of websites, could be more useful with directory

How to make notice and choice more effective

- Incentives for adoption
- Enforcement (legal and technical)
- Baseline requirements
- Standardized notice formats
- Machine-readable notice formats
- Reduce ambiguity
- Link to full disclosure
- Comparison tools
- More research
